

4th War Loan Drive Goes Over the Top

New County Board Given Approval

City-County to Name Members

County Planning Will Be Handled by 18 Representative Citizens in Group

Randall county will have a county-wide civilian committee of 18 members by March 1 to plan for the future building of this community.

The City Planning Board proposed that such a committee be formed at its recent meeting. C. L. Thompson, chairman of the Planning Board, was instructed to meet with the City Commission and the Commissioners Court to present this matter.

The City Commission approved the proposal at the meeting last week and the Commissioners Court authorized its adoption at the meeting Monday.

The City Commission will appoint eight members from Canyon; each commissioner will appoint two members from each of the four precincts; the Commissioners will appoint two members from South Amarillo. These 18 members will meet soon after March 1st, elect their own officers, choose a name for the committee, and set up such a program as deemed necessary for the future developments of the entire county.

So far as known this is the first county in the Southwest to adopt such a policy. Some of the larger cities have planning boards, but none of the counties have adopted the county-wide plan as authorized Monday.

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce will be asked to join in this organization with the view that one group shall handle all public questions after the organization is completed.

In discussing the plan with city and county officials, Mr. Thompson received hearty approval of the plan, and it is believed that public affairs of the county will be greatly benefitted by this committee.

Owing to the large number of Randall county citizens who live within the corporate limits of Amarillo, this section is given special representation on the new committee.

Meeting of Farm Bureau Was Held Amarillo Monday

About thirty Randall County farmers attended the District Farm Bureau meeting in Amarillo Monday.

W. M. Deck of Perryton, who serves District One on the Texas State Farm Bureau of Directors, was in charge of the meeting.

R. G. Arnold of Auburn, Alabama was the principal speaker at the morning session. Mr. Arnold is Regional Director, on organization for the American Farm Bureau Federation in the thirteen Southern states. Mr. Arnold spoke for J. Walter Hammond, President of the Texas organization who was unable to attend.

W. R. Tilson of Brownfield, Director of District Two, presided at the afternoon session in which Judge C. C. Randle of Waxahachie was the principal speaker. Judge Randle stressed the need for organized effort on the part of farmers in order to meet the food production needs of the nation. Judge Randle is in charge of organization work for the Texas State Farm Bureau Federation.

Among the farmers attending from Randall county were the following: Clarence Beckman, C. C. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burrus, Chas. J. Beckman, Vincent Friemel, Raymond Batenhurst, Ben Koch, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wise, Jno. L. Hammond, Emil Olson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Leavitt, Louis Wieck, E. W. Schaeffer, L. E. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bryan, Mrs. E. A. Michael, L. B. Hammond, F. C. Gruner, L. T. Campbell, John Vorwald, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Park, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bennett, John Bedenk and W. H. Upchurch.

Miss Geraldine Hart from the Dalhart Air Field spent Sunday in the parental Silas Hart home. Miss Hart has been made Supervisor of Memorandum Receipts. She has been working in this department since assignment in the Dalhart Field.

Mrs. Millard Rooker and her 79 year old aunt, Emma Bishop, from Brooklyn, Ind., are visiting Aviation Student William W. Rooker. They say this is the friendliest town they ever saw.

Mrs. Fern Shepherd Given Navy Pin

Mrs. Fern Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Walters of Canyon, received the Navy Department's new civilian service recognition pin from Assistant Secretary of the Navy Ralph A. Bard, in the secretary's reception office at Washington, January 22, 1944. She was one of ten new recruits in the Navy's civilian service to receive the pin at the ceremony.

Mrs. Shepherd's husband, Lieut. Curtis J. Shepherd, was killed more than a year ago in an airplane crash at Phoenix, Ariz.

After graduation from Canyon High School where she was prominent in the Drum Corps and Pep Squad, Mrs. Shepherd attended West Texas State College. Before going to Washington, she attended business college in Lubbock where she made outstanding grades.

Heath Submits Highway Project

State Officials Are High In Praise of Panhandle Group on Future Program

G. B. Heath represented the City Planning Board Friday at Austin before the State Highway Commission. Thirteen of the 18 counties of this district of the Highway Department was represented at the meeting.

Mr. Heath presented the proposed highway from Canyon to Dimmitt.

The Panhandle delegation was highly praised by highway officials for presenting a unified program for this part of the Panhandle. It is believed by Austin officials that the federal government will start a large highway construction program after the war to meet the unemployment problem which is likely to develop. Having these projects ready for action will be of great benefit to the Highway Department in making adequate representation to Washington on the needs of the state.

Mr. Heath stated that he has never received such courteous treatment. The Panhandle delegation was given additional time to present its program when the Commission was informed that all of the counties had agreed upon the program laid before the state body.

Castro county had a delegation to join Mr. Heath in recommending the proposed highway which will affect this county.

Boy Scouts Will Meet Friday at the City Hall

On February 18, at 8:30 p. m. there will be the Annual District Meeting of the Randall County District of the Llano Estacado Council Boy Scouts of America, at the City Hall in Canyon.

The purpose of this meeting will be the nomination and election of officers for the coming year; the hearing of reports from the following committees: Finance, Lee Johnson; camping, Dr. S. H. Condon; health and safety, Dr. R. P. Jarrett; advancement, Boone McClure; organization and extension, Milton Morris; commissioner, J. W. Kleinschmidt.

Also there will be a review of the past year's work and the plans for the coming year.

Anyone interested in helping develop Scout work in Randall county is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Francis La Loge of Strong City, Kansas and Mrs. W. B. Brewster of Emporia visited in Canyon for the first time in 13 years to spend the week end with their grand daughter and niece, Peggy La Loge. Also they were guests of Mrs. Augusta Hancock and Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Davis and family.

Radio Operator Pfc. George Gwyn, who is stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga., was here on furlough last week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gwyn of 2901 Taylor St., Amarillo. Pfc. Gwyn is in the 42nd Infantry of the Rainbow Division and will go to Gruber, Okla.

(This is part of and included in the over-all quota)
Total sales of Series E War Savings Bonds on the Fourth War Loan Drive, up to and including February 15th $110,943.75

Amount yet lacking on Series E Bonds quota $ 11,056.25

Lack Only Small Amount E Bonds

County Chairman Hopes to See Total for County Over Top By End of February

Randall county went over the top again on the 4th War Loan Drive. County Chairman R. H. Wright reported Friday that the quota for the county had been reached, but the county is still a little short on the sale of E Bonds, which is being urged by the government.

E Bonds are bought by individuals for investment purposes, and for this reason the government set the quota on these bonds very high during the 4th War Loan Drive.

The sale of E, F and G Bonds made up to and including February 29th will count on the 4th War Loan Drive. All citizens who can buy another bond during the balance of the month are urged to do so in order that both the over-all and E Bond quotas be met in this drive.

Mr. Wright stated yesterday that he was highly pleased with the fine response from Randall county and the excellent co-operation which he had received during the drive. Many citizens assisted Mr. Wright during the Drive in order that the quota would be met.

A tabulation of the bond drive is printed on this page in order that all may see how the drive stood yesterday and the amount of E Bonds which should be sold during the balance of the month in order that both quotas shall be met.

New Worker Is Named Welfare Work in County

Mrs. Vivian Cummings, who lives in Amarillo is the new director of the State Department of Public Welfare in Canyon. She has been in the Amarillo offices since January 1, and comes to Canyon to replace Mrs. Cochran, who has been transferred to Amarillo.

Mrs. Cummings is no stranger to Canyon. She attended W. T. Demonstration School two summers and did her Freshman work in West Texas State. After leaving W. T., she attended Texas Tech at Lubbock, where she is classified as a senior.

Although Mrs. Cummings has had little experience in her present work, she has had six years experience as a school teacher which gave her valuable experience in meeting and dealing with people.

The public Welfare Office will have intake hours for making of applications each Tuesday from 9:00-12:00. Regular office hours will be Thursdays from 9:00-12:00.

Miss Ruth Owens, junior student in W. T. from Tulsa, is secretary to Mrs. Cummings.

Faculty Discussed Future Plans For College

The regular meeting of the faculty of W. T. S. last week had two special features. Dr. R. P. Jarrett gave a summary of his annual report to the president in which he compared conditions within this college with those that prevail in other colleges throughout the U. S., and in which he pointed out special projects which need to be undertaken by this college.

Following his report, there was a round-table discussion on post war W. T., with Dr. B. F. Fronabarger as chairman of the group. Others participating were Miss Ruth Lowes, Mr. John A. Gillis, and Mr. F. E. Savage. Miss Lowes emphasized the fine well established reputation which this college has in the field of teacher training and related it to the shortage of teachers which now exists in Texas. Mr. Gillis emphasized the need for more courses which will fit men and women for positions in skilled and semi-skilled vocations. Mr. Savage presented some ideas about plant and equipment which he had gotten through a student survey. He mentioned especially, a library building, a fine arts building, a student union, and an industrial arts building.

Dr. Fronabarger spoke on new philosophies and methods in the field of humanities.

President Hill announced to the faculty that there would be further discussions of the same kind.

Lieut. and Mrs. Sherman Higdon and son, San Angelo, spent the week visiting family and friends in Canyon and Amarillo.

Judge and Mrs. C. E. Hill of Dalhart spent the week end at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Clay Cooper.

Glaze of Ice Follows Shower and Small Sleet

Citizens of Canyon were surprised Sunday morning when they started to leave their homes to find a glaze of ice on the ground. A light rain in the night was followed with sleet which made walking and driving very dangerous. Several Canyon people had had falls on the ice before they realized that the light rain had fallen.

Mother Collins, mother of Mrs. Agnes Smith of Cousins Hall, received a broken hip and arm as a result of a fall as she started to church. She was taken to an Amarillo hospital for treatment.

A light snow fell Sunday night, but the total moisture in Canyon was only .15 of an inch. The North Plains received three inches of snow. Canyon was near the edge of the snow, as it extended only a few miles to the south.

Shirley Harrell Wins Honors In Gulf Park

Miss Shirley Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Harrell, made a straight A grade card for fall semester in Gulf Park College, Gulf Port, La., where she is enrolled as a freshman. She has also been elected president of the Freshman class for the spring semester.

Miss Harrell graduated from Canyon High School in May, 1943, as salutatorian and the winner of the Balfour Plaque which is awarded each year to the student whom the faculty elects as most outstanding in scholarship, loyalty and achievement.

Mrs. Charlotte Word and Mrs. Tom Knighton went to Lubbock Monday to see Bobby Word off to the Navy Training Base, San Diego, Calif.

CIO is reported to have set aside 5 million dollars to re-elect President Roosevelt. Why Not? The administration has played into the hands of CIO at the expense of the balance of the nation. You cannot blame the union leaders for wanting a man in the White House who will reward those who strike against their government in time of war. Regardless of whether this is a direct and willful punishment of those who do not strike, the results are the same. We hear government officials bragging how much better off the people of the nation are today than before the war, almost to the extent of bragging about the benefits of war. But the facts are that while those who are directly engaged in war production are better off, 20 million salaried workers, and 10 million men under arms are much worse off. Few of the families of these men are profiting by war. Even John L. Lewis will stay with the President when it comes to a showdown, since John has gotten everything that his miners have demanded.

A universal service act is being endorsed by various Military leaders of the nation. At the same time we hear military leaders criticized for the great waste of manpower which goes on in all military training camps. During peace, America scorned her military men and suppressed their desires to prepare for any sort of war. When war comes we hand them everything they wish. If the service act had been proposed at the beginning of the war, it would have been accepted. But now, in spite of the stalemate in Italy, most Americans feel that the war is too nearly won to bother with such a law. At any rate, the average citizen does not wish to see the military group become so powerful in this nation that they can run things after the war, as they do in other nations, and are doing in America today.

The complacency charge out of Washington against the American people makes us tired. They say we don't know the war is on. What a malicious lie! More than 700 young men have gone into the armed services from Randall county. That is about one out of every 10 citizens. How many families are there in the county that has not contributed a boy to the armed services? Very few indeed! And do you think for a minute that these fathers and mothers, wives, sweethearts, brothers and sisters are complacent about the war? Perhaps those who are making such numbskull charges are the Washington officials who live in luxury, wining and dining on the fat of the land because they hold the best jobs they have ever commanded. The war has been kind to such officials, but not to the majority of other Americans.

We have read some very optimistic as well as other very pessimistic reports on consumer goods for civilians during the coming months. As a matter of fact, every wise civilian should have made up his mind months ago that he was going to be forced to do without many of the luxuries which he has enjoyed in the past. Keeping old machinery running; keeping homes and business houses repaired; conserving wearing apparel, and living on food which are readily accessible will be the program for every civilian until the war is over—and we hate to remark again—that the end is not in sight.

Who should tackle the youth problem which confronts the nation? A local pastor stated the other day that the ministers had been called upon to take action, but was at a loss to understand what they were expected to do. The war has brought on an acute situation in which youth is running wild to a certain degree. The home, the school and the church must work together in meeting this problem. By the time local officers are called in to handle the wild youth of the community, it is usually pretty late for reform.

At his press conference the other day the President was given a chance to show his hand on the 4th term. Naturally he brushed the question aside. This is the best sign that he is actually a candidate for the 4th term. If he had any other idea than a 4th term, he would begin grooming some candidate to run on the Democratic ticket. Anti-4th term Democrats are said to be looking for some strong Southern candidate for a third party, if Roosevelt accepts the nomination. If the solid south is broken by staying in the Democratic party, rather than following Roosevelt's New Deal party, a Republican victory would be assured in November. As the matter now stands, Congress will be controlled by the Republicans after the November election. The President should realize that he can no longer push an anti-administration Congress around as he has with a strong Democratic majority. For this reason alone, he should frankly state that he is out of the running and allow the Democrats to look over the field with the view of nominating a man for President who might defeat any reactionary Republican in November. But the chances are strong against any such good luck.

We like to hear that conditions in Germany and Japan are terrible and that the people are about ready for revolt. It sure bolsters all Americans when we hear such reports. Our propaganda system never overlooks an opportunity to tell us about it. With each good report more people lessen their war effort. But did you ever stop to consider how we are feeding the propaganda machine to our enemies? Can't you just see the German stick out his chest with pride and the sneer on the Jap's face as he is fed the propaganda of our strikes and strife within the United States; how our people complain about the inconveniences of war? We are doing more to bolster the morale of our enemies than he is doing for himself. The propaganda ministry is taking full benefit of the conditions which we tolerate in this nation.

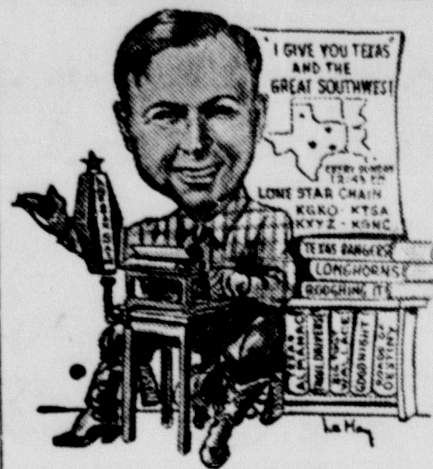

We are told that the most dangerous situation facing America is a probably breakdown in transportation. Never has our transportation system been driven at such a pace, with little or no chance for repairs and replacement. Our railroads were fortunately in fair shape before the war started. Because of lack of manpower and rolling stock, they are having a terrible time standing the pace. Trucks and busses on the highways today look to be ten years older than they were a year ago, and there is little chance for replacement. This simply means that if the transportation system begins to lag, civilians will be penalized. We are reserving transportation facilities to handle the armed forces. Movement of perishable goods within the nation may suffer because of this breakdown.

We are told that the Negro problem will be more acute after the war. That is not the only problem which is going to be acute, and over which the national leaders will have plenty of trouble. Mrs. Roosevelt and some of her ill-advised Washington reformers seems to have put the idea of racial equality in the heads of Negroes. The Negroes should be taught to be proud of their race; to keep it pure and clear; and then be given an opportunity to work at the jobs for which they are fitted. Educational facilities are being extended to the Negroes, which have been too largely withheld in the past. If a few fool whites will leave the Negroes alone, the equality problem will be minimized.

Fighters in Italy have been up against the real thing. The weather has conspired with the Germans. In face of this, we are told that Americans should not become critical of the slow process, since we are thousands of miles away from the battle front and know nothing about the tremendous odds which our fighters are up against. Of course it sounds good to push our forces over the map, as we do checkers, and wonder why our men are not making such similar easy progress. But this is an all-out war, and the Germans are determined to hold Italy at all costs.

Vice President Wallace continues on his campaign tour to first sell Henry A. Wallace to the nation, and second to boost for a continuation of the New Deal. Wallace and the President should get together. The President wants to ditch the New Deal for a more appropriate campaign name. But Wallace is still trying to peddle his idealistic program to the nation. Congress charges that Wallace is spending billions of dollars in South America through his good-will policy, attempting to buy goodwill.

We are told by OPA that an acute meat shortage faces the nation. If so, the meddlers and fixers of OPA will be to blame. However, let it be remembered that not everything connected with OPA is bad. OPA has done a good job in holding prices in line on thousands of articles. In other fields, such as the livestock situation, OPA has been a wash-out.

Strawn, many years ago the center of a roaring mining district, now has only one coal mine running, we read in the Tribune—Mine No. 4, which produces 300 tons a week, three miles northeast of the town. Si Bradford, marshal during the hectic mining days, is still the "law" in Strawn. Now well past the three score-and-ten mark, Officer Bradford uses a cane which was given to him by a man whom he once "sent up"—which shows that everyone, even a former lawbreaker, respects the sincerity of the great old peace officer, who shot down all three of the Santa Clause bank bandits in a running fight some 16 years ago.

Political jottings: David Read, publisher of the Silsbee Bee, will be a candidate for the legislature. . . . So will Judge R. N. Grisham of Eastland, former prosecuting attorney of a 14-county district. J. H. Waggoner, Whitewright editor and former House member, may run again. . . . Ralph Yarborough, who was a strong third in the race for Attorney General when Gerald Mann was first elected, very likely would have run this year—but he is Major Yarborough, on active duty. An eloquent speaker, a vigorous campaigner and an able attorney, Ralph Yarborough is likely to be heard from later. . . . Unique are the packets of matches that Congressman Write Patman of Texas is putting out. On each row of matches is printed: "State song, 'Texas, Our Texas'; State motto, 'Friendship'; State flower, 'Bluebonnet'; State bird, 'Mocking Bird'; State tree, 'Pecan'; 254 counties; Population, 1940, 6,418,321."

President Calvin Coolidge was noted for his solemnity but Will Rogers, who had never met "Silent Cal," made a wager that he could make the chief executive smile. When they were introduced, Rogers—with solemn face—asked, "What is the name?" and Coolidge's frosty features parted in a broad grin.

The two became good friends and the President later evened the score. Will invited Coolidge to come out and hear him lecture. "Anything else on the program?" the President asked. "Yes," Rogers replied, "there's a quartet." Coolidge said, "Good, I'll be there—I like music."

"Hats off to Studebaker

for cars that stand up
in wartime"

SAYS W. M. Byrd, engineer on a U. S. Navy job at Bay City, Michigan: "My hat's off to Studebaker. You're certainly right when you say the Studebaker Champion is engineered to save an owner money and built to withstand hard punishment."

"I know. I've owned three Champions. The one I'm now driving, a 1941 model, has 31,000 miles on it and its tires look good for 30,000 miles more."

"My two previous Champions gave me remarkable mileage over rugged West Virginia mountain roads."

"On the three Champions, my total maintenance bills, outside of proper servicing, did not exceed $40."

Mr. Byrd's experience, after two years of war, is matched by that of many other Studebaker owners.

Seabees Thrilling Experiences Told by Camp Paper

Elon Hill EM 1/c of the 14th Battalion Seabees is back in the states and now stationed at Camp Parks, Calif., where he is recuperating from a siege of 12 months and a few days in the South Pacific, getting a little more training and waiting for the Battalion's next assignment. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hill with whom he spent a few days furlough before reporting to Camp Parks.

Seaman Hill writes that while he is the only Canyon boy in his Battalion a few from here have gone to school at Camp Parks, and approximately 50 or 60 boys from the Panhandle are in the 14th.

In his letter he enclosed an article in which 14th Battalion Seabees recall experiences.

"On Guadalcanal, all the water isn't in the ocean, according to the 14th Seabee Battalion now in the states after a long tour of duty on the island.

"Jap air-raids, snakes and other hazards were bad enough, but men of the Battalion recall the night a little jungle river went wild as their most exciting experience.

"The 14th Seabees were encamped beside the jungle stream when it began to rain. For three days and nights it poured down. Then—suddenly—as mountain tributaries poured in additional water, the raging stream could no longer hold its banks. In the middle of the night it abruptly rose 16 feet, flooding the camp area to a depth of three to four feet.

"Working furiously to save their equipment and supplies, the Seabees found it necessary to hoist all gear possible to the tops of trees where it was secured. Then, with full packs and rifles, the battalion waded miles through the swirling, breast-high water, reaching the beaches without losing a man.

Because of constant forays by bombers, iron-clad blackout regulations had to be observed. No fires were lighted.

"Soaking wet, the Seabees spent a sleepless night huddled together on the beach. The following day they were back again—recovering their supplies.

"Seabees of the 14th Battalion, back in the states from Guadalcanal fancy themselves as 'The World's Most Expert Foxhole Connoisseurs.' 'Why, Mac,' explained one Seabee quite seriously, 'I can take a look at a foxhole from 25 feet away and immediately give you a military analysis, scientific explanation and profane description.'

"And they mean it. The 14th Battalion underwent 246 bombing raids in 15 months—plus over 300 air raid alerts.

"The routine was something like this: awakened from the deep sleep that followed ten hours of hard, grueling work, you grabbed a blanket and tore for your foxhole. After a few minutes the warning wall died away, leaving you crouched in the foxhole. If you were lucky, the foxhole wasn't full of water—only about half full of mud. After a few hours the 'all clear' sounded, and you hurried back to your tent. Again you fell asleep and again the siren began to scream. Back you stumbled to your foxhole—and wait—

"When asked about the depth of a foxhole, one of the veteran Seabees of the 14th answered: 'Mac, it keeps getting deeper and deeper! The first time you dig it maybe three, four feet down. But every time a bomb lands anywhere near you, early next morning you're out there with a shovel—digging her deeper!'

One of those super-intelligent seniors entered the professor's office one morning and in a very superior tone remarked:

"Last night, professor, your daughter accepted my proposal of marriage. Fully realizing the importance of the step, I have called to see you and to inquire if there is any insanity in your family."

The old professor looked up over his glasses and surveyed the young man in silence for a moment, then sadly nodding his head, remarked: "Yes, yes. There must be."

Come On, America! It's 1944!

THIS is what we've been working for all along. This is the year to hit and hurt the enemy. This is the time when everything you do counts double. If we all get together and do all we can, we'll be over this hurdle and well on our way to complete and crushing victory.

No question about the men in uniform—they'll go "all out." But can we count on you to back them all the way? Your quota is where you work—you've got to buy your War Bonds and then buy more, until every last loose cent you have is fighting. Tough? Of course, it's tough—unless it is a sacrifice you're simply not doing your share!

Make the sacrifice now—buy more than the extra $100 Bond your country counts on you for—winning the war is worth any sacrifice you make. Besides, you aren't giving, you're lending to America! You'll get back every dollar you invest in War Bonds, with interest.

An extra $100 War Bond now is the minimum for everybody—can't we count on you for more?

This sticker in your window means you have bought 4th War Loan securities.

Let's All BACK THE ATTACK!

RALPH CLUB DISCUSSED STUDENTS' HOT LUNCHES

"Is it possible to have hot lunches for the rural children of Randall County who come in to Canyon Schools?" This question was discussed pro and con by the women of Ralph Home Demonstration Club Wednesday, Feb. 9, in the home of Mrs. Simon Elliott. The discussion was led by Miss Gladys Armstrong, who is employed by the Federal Government. It was explained that if local organizations would take definite steps in providing a place, equipment and supervision, the federal government would share in a large part the actual expense of food. Not only the under-nourished, but all the children would profit with this hot lunch room project.

A program on post-war planning was brought by members of the club.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the colorful refreshments which were served by the hostess to Miss Armstrong, Mrs. J. J. Wright, Mrs. Sam Hill, guests; and the following members: Mrs. James Jennings, Mrs. H. G. Persons, Mrs. Joe Cox, Mrs. L. S. Johnston, Mrs. Stacy Howell, Mrs. John F. Lill, and Mrs. Elliott.

The successful missionary, she maintained, is one who is willing to work, and to sacrifice the comforts of soft living to carry the Word to the new field and is eager to remain there until the sown seed is well rooted in the new soil. This means giving all time—even unto all of life.

Mrs. C. R. Burrow asked divine blessing on the work of all missionaries.

Why VICKS Is So Good For Relieving Miseries of Childrens Colds

More than two generations ago—in grandmother's day—mothers first discovered Vicks VapoRub. Today it is the most widely used home-remedy for relieving miseries of children's colds. And here is the reason . . .

The moment you rub VapoRub on the throat, chest and back at bedtime it starts to work two ways at once—and keeps on working for hours—to ease coughing spasms, help clear congestion in cold-clogged upper breathing passages, relieve muscular soreness or tightness. It promotes restful sleep. Often most of the misery of the cold is gone by morning! That's why VapoRub is so good to use when colds strike. Try it!

V-NEWS

"Food as usual" is out for the duration; possibly for some time afterward. Information leads one to believe that certain foods will continue to be scarce and their point value high.

In view of this fact, why not start that home garden now? Start by planning; not by planting. Ask yourself: "What variety of food shall I raise in order to provide for the needs of my family?" "What varieties of vegetables grow best in this soil?" "When and how should I plant to insure a continuous supply of fresh foods?" If the answers aren't forthcoming, several local groups stand ready to help.

To take care of next winter's needs, plan to preserve the surplus. If you have a pressure cooker or have facilities for freezing foods, make use of them; if not, investigate the possibilities of home dehydration and the opportunities offered by the proposed canning center.

Each bit of food produced goes into the building of stronger bodies and also releases products for the armed services and the allies. Help make this a Victory year—have a garden.

THIS I CAN DO

The old refrain heard near and far "Help all you can to win the war" Draws this response— "What can I do?"

It's not enough for me to say, "I'll tend my home and go my way"; And so I say, "What can I do?"

But then a voice within me cries At home one way to victory lies: Collect the scrap; round up the tin. Save all the fat and turn it in. A little garden would be good To keep us healthy with fresh food. Those last year's clothes can be like new

And save money for some war bonds too. Foster ideals high and true . . . These I can do!

Class Prophecies Future Events

Baptist Minister Renders Devotional for Assembly

Following the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, led by Lindsey Taylor, and a short devotional by Dr. Roy L. Johnson, the Freshman Class of Canyon High School presented an imaginary "Glimpse Into the Future" for the school assembly, Friday, February 11.

Included in their program were: an operation on James Guthrie by doctors Bill Davis and James Rigsby, assisted by nurse Joan Byars; a conversation between ultramodern mothers, Billie Jo Wallen and Ruth Prichard about their children, Donald Sterling and Ruby Bosley; a scientific demonstration of amazing new vitamins by Paul Cook and Vernon Ruggles; a future discovery in recordings demonstrated by Betty Brown; a mechanical teacher successfully managing a thoroughly human class; and a "divorce detector" detecting discord in the household of Frances Harp and Ernest Frank, alias Doris Cynthia Dinglehopper and Freddy Pinckenbaumer.

New basketball cheer leaders, Betty Brown, Mollie Nann Ziegler, and Helen Jo Cox supplemented an announcement of the coming basketball game with Price Memorial College from Amarillo by leading the student body in several cheers for the team.

To close the assembly, Tommy Thompson urged all students to bring money for extra bonds and stamps on Tuesday, when the Fourth War Loan Drive ends.

MEANING OF WAR

Few people seem to realize just what the word "war" means in our daily school life. So many things are taken for granted in peace time.

Webster gives the definition of war as "a conflict by force of arms between nations or parts of the same nation." To students such as the ones that attend Canyon High the word "war" has an entirely different meaning.

Who ever heard of an American kid growing up without knowing the mouth-watering taste of juicy hamburgers dripping with mustard? Yet many of the future generation will have to wait to enjoy these glorious delicatessens because of the present shortage of meat. Skating parties, joy rides, and picnics have been put into scrap books and labeled pre-war!

Oh well, who cares if giving up these unimportant things will help our country come out on top of the serious conflict in which she is now engaged?

Bonifield Forgets Final Notes; Sanders Displays Fire Works

Students of Canyon High:

You are implored to turn your minds back to Wednesday morning, February 9. The Spanish Club was in session. First Billy Bonifield's voice drifting down the hall, then suddenly without warning, it stopped. Do you know why? She forgot the last line of the song she was singing. Then Margaret Lair entertained the group with a reading. An excerpt is "When God gave out brains, I thought he said trains and I missed mine." You can imagine the rest, especially if you know Margaret.

Then Ellen Sanders stepped forward, bowed low, and gave out with "The Hat Dance" on her accordion. Everyone clapped loudly, but the poor dear girl blushed even deeper than usual. Do you know why, again? The class across the hall, namely the geometry class, clapped too. A geometric messenger was dispatched to endow upon Miss Sanders their thanks and appreciation. Then the crowd finished the gathering in gales of laughter with several short, snappy jokes.

Don't you wish you had been there? Tune in next week folks, we don't know; you can never tell just what will happen.

German Spy Invades Science Laboratory

In the dead of the night a strong and sinister creature was seen lurking around the quiet and shadowed high school building. Glancing around cautiously, and then stealing stealthily up the steps, he inserted a pass key in the lock. With a squeak and a groan the door opened to admit the figure into the blackened hallway.

Up the stairs, around the corner, and into the science laboratory the figure raced on noiseless feet. Pulling the shades and glancing nervously from side to side, he then turned on the lights. Instantly, a panorama of bottles and assorted apparatus were revealed by the sudden blinding flash. Until now the suspicious character had been identified only as a dark figure, evidently on some deep dark mission, but the tell-tale lights showed with a glitter the gold swastikas on his smart black uniform. His eyes gleamed with the hateful glare of a madman as he started to arrange various tubes, measuring articles, and lighting bunsen burners. What was causing all the smoke that arose from the flask? Ah yes—the tell-tale odor of mustard gas! Soon the deadly gas was boiling and bubbling gaily. It was now ready for the supreme test!

With a sinister laugh, the Nazi started out the door, carrying his deadly weapon before him. During this process he had been constantly muttering the words, "Down with the American Pigs, long live Der Fuehrer." Now he was spreading the gas in its liquid form along the third floor with the purpose of pushing the top floor through to the basement. When—who should come to the rescue but our own science teacher, Mrs. K. Kirkland!

Flash! Billy Jane Bonifield and Charles Hillier had a gay old time Thursday night. AND, but don't pass this on, something was said about a proposal.

Photographs of the dashing Clark Gable or the romantic John Payne just won't satisfy Laura Lee Davis. She wants one of Max Dutton—in a big way.

Why does J. Ray Hunter seem so happy about his part in the senior play? 'Course it has its good points. Mollie Nann Ziegler DOES play opposite him, and there ARE some good lines (non-speaking) to his advantage.

Since the departure of Bob Cope-land from the halls of our dear old alma-mater Kathryn Davenport has been sporting an extremely long face. We wonder why!

F. F. A. Boys Hold Annual Meeting

With the West Texas High School Chapter as hosts, the Hereford District of the Future Farmers of America met in the W. T. auditorium for their annual all-day meeting.

James Lair, district president, opened the meeting with the regular ceremony. Two new officers were recognized and arrangements were made for the installation. John Boling of the Friona Chapter was elected Merchant, while the Farwell Chapter will select a member for Overport.

Frank Overturf, secretary of The Farmers' Union, addressed the assembly on "The Young People of the Farm," after which plans were laid for a district encampment this summer, and details were referred to a committee.

After a dinner, served by the W. T. Chapter, one act demonstrations of farm techniques were held. West Texas High won first prize of $7.50 with a demonstration of chicken culling. Milk testing was rated second, and as a result of their winning this, the Hereford Chapter was presented with $4.50. Third premium, $4.00, was given to the Friona boys for a rafter cutting demonstration. Canyon High took fourth with a pork cutting and curing operation. Last place went to Dimmitt with an electric fencing project.

A recreation period consisting of basketball in the Demonstration School gymnasium ended the meet.

Every day at the fifth period you will find Don Standley walling away at the sixth grade in the grade school gym. Don, or "Eddie" as everybody calls him, goes over there to referee a basketball game between members of the class. Some fun, eh what?

Merle Dickerson, alias "Lard," still shows interest in the Eagles by showing up to practice almost every afternoon. Often he is accompanied by Lindsey Taylor and Bobbie Dowd.

When, and if, you Eagles go to Dumas, we want you to know that all of the gang back here will be rooting for you to win.

It is still unknown how the Canyon High quintet is going to the district tournament at Dumas. If you can or know of someone who can take his car to Dumas Feb. 18 and 19, please talk to Coach Sanders or Mr. Speer. Gas and oil will be paid for, and lodging will be furnished Friday night. If you can take your car it will be appreciated very much.

Judges Announce Senior Players

Class Sponsor Will Direct
Annual Senior Production

At senior play try-outs Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Dan Sanders, Mrs. A. K. Knott, and Mrs. Kenneth C. Parmalee, judges, selected the eleven students who will compose the cast for the senior mystery farce, "Demon in the Dark."

Sandra Trevor, young owner of "Look-out Lodge," Mollie Nann Ziegler; Ethelind, her sixteen year-old sister, Mary Alice Campfield; Bob Hildreth, Sandra's ex-fiance, J. Ray Hunter; Deryk Vorse, her wealthy suitor, Lindsey Taylor.

Lizzie Scruggs, the Trevors' housekeeper, Kathryn Davenport; Dido Davis, superstitious negro servant, Claudine Foster; Juniper Jenks, Dido's boyfriend, Charles SoRelle, and The Demon, ghost of the murdered owner of "Look-out Lodge," Charles Hillier.

Production night, time for practicing, and backstage workers will be decided at a meeting of the cast and director, Mr. W. G. Sanderson, class sponsor.

If it keeps up the present pace, will reach its goal of $75,000 before the end of school. Our sales boost it weekly toward the final goal.

Townpeople, whether connected with the school or not, are urged to buy their bonds through Canyon High School. Results of Tuesday's rally will be announced shortly.

Supt. J. B. Speer states, "I feel that our school is doing our share, but we want to do more than our share in the present world situation. Our teachers are buying bonds 100%, and the students are almost doing this. The students must go forward to get our school's name on a 'Flying Jeep.'"

Knott Reveals Past Romantic History

It happened this way:

Several years ago, (although we can't tell you exactly how many) two college co-eds met in the halls of their alma-mater and entered into a conversation that went something like this:

"Velma, I have a lab this period. Will you go down to the train to meet a friend for me?" asked Gladys.

"Oh, sure," replied the willing Velma, and she did.

At the station, after the two girls had exchanged appropriate greetings, the friend said, "Velma, this is Kirk, a boy whom I met on the train. He's coming to the University, too."

And that's how it happened. Velma and Kirk are now Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Knott, and the preceding incident occurred several years ago at the University of Colorado.

Espanoles Select Term Officers

Opening the semi-monthly Spanish Club meeting on Wednesday, February 9, was Peggy Head, president, who presided over the meeting. She was followed by Margaret Lair with the reading of the minutes.

Following officers for the coming semester were elected: President, Margaret Lair; vice-president, Louise Dickerson; secretary, Sue Ann Moreman; treasurer, Peggy Head; social chairman, Mary Nell Morris; and movie chairman, Zonelle Gregg.

Donna Aardal and Gracie Boyd were in charge of the program that followed the business meeting.

Billy Bonifield sang "La Paloma" and "La Golondrina" to the group in Spanish. An accordion solo, "La Jarabe Tapatio," was played by Ellen Sanders. Several of the members volunteered some jokes to add to atmosphere.

This meeting was closed by the participation of the group in singing several Spanish songs.

Brigham Young was reputed to have 19 wives and 57 children.

Gordon Achieves Scoring Honors

Second Stringers Conquer
Cardinal B String 16-9

Gaining vengeance after a previous defeat, the Canyon Eagle quintet overpowered the Amarillo Price Memorial Cardinals with a 38-23 defeat in the Canyon Grade School gymnasium last Friday night.

High point man for the Eagle team was center Leslie Gordon, who scored six field goals, closely followed by guard, Max Bosley, who scored four field goals and one free shot. On the opposing team, Voundran outscored his teammates by basketballing 12 of the final 23 tallies.

Past, furious playing continued throughout the game, with the Eagles only five points ahead at the half, but skyrocketing forward to gain a 15 point margin which the Amarillo team could not overcome.

Eagle second string teamsters defeated the Price B team for the second time this year by a final tally of 16-9. Harley Hicks took top honors as high point man for the entire game with four field goals while Kenneth Vaughan came next with two field goals.

"I was highly impressed by the attendance and school spirit of the spectators, and by the excellent sportsmanship shown by the boys on both teams," said Coach Milton Sanders.

Students Convert Class Into Party

Monday afternoon on St. Valentine's Day, the seventh grade classes joined forces for a Valentine party during the last period.

Students exchanged Valentines, and as an added surprise Miss Hazel Kingsley, sponsor of the classes, presented each student with a Valentine greeting in the form of ice cream.

After the Valentines were distributed, the remainder of the time was used for a called class meeting to discuss the seventh grade assembly program.

CONTINUE FARM PORK SALES

Farmers may continue the sale of pork from home-slaughtered hogs without a license or permit and may deliver any quantity of pork to persons not living on the farm, until March 17, the War Food Administration has ruled. However, farmers are required to collect ration stamps for pork so delivered.

TRUCKS MOVE 98% OF FARM CROP

Largely as a result of the cooperation of farmers and truck operators with the Transportation Conservation Plan, about 1,600,000 motor trucks, mostly farmer-owned, moved 98% of last year's huge farm crop at some stage of the journey from farm to market, the Office of Defense Transportation says. Other farm transportation programs now operating include the movement of livestock, cotton, fresh fruits and vegetables, citrus fruits, and poultry.

NO METAL ICE BOX IN NEAR FUTURE

Production of pre-war models of all-metal domestic ice refrigerators will not be resumed in the near future, the War Production Board said, mainly because reversion would involve a long change-over period. The hardboard and wood war-model is now being produced at almost four times the pre-war rate.

FOOD FOR U. S. CIVILIANS

Civilians in the United States will have more frozen vegetables during the next five months as a result of an expected all-time record high production, WPA has announced. Usually available in frozen form are snap beans, corn kernels, peas, spinach, asparagus, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, and corn on the cob. U. S. civilians will have slightly less rice in 1944 than during recent years and less canned milk than during 1943, although the amount of canned milk available will be in approximate proportion to civilian purchases under rationing, which began in June, 1943.

AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM

The 1944 program for U. S. agricultural conservation practices, designed to guide six million farm families in getting maximum production from their land, has been announced by WFA. Among the most important practices are those dealing with application of lime and phosphate, which give the soil greater "fire power," immediately boosting production at low cost. If present acreage of cultivated land is managed well, said N. E. Dodd, Chief of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, which manages the conservation program, U. S. farmers will not have to plow up grasslands as they did in the last war. "The dust storms and erosion that followed that first plow-up became a national catastrophe," he said.

LESS PAPER FOR PACKAGES

Fewer package wrappings will be available for retail shoppers this year, according to WPB. Shortage of wood pulp for paper-making will not permit a normal supply. There will be enough bags for assorted groceries, WPB said, if housewives save these bags and take them back to stores for their own re-use. WPB also advised that the shopping bag with handles must be used many times to substitute for individual package wrappings.

LIFE-SAVING TRAINING PAYS OFF

Intensive training in life-saving enabled American merchant seamen of the S. S. Monterey to rescue 1,675 survivors of a torpedoed troop transport in the Mediterranean, according to the War Shipping Administration. Some of the 1,977 persons aboard the transport were saved by other craft, and only four persons were lost.

GERMAN U-BOATS LOSE THEIR PUNCH

The amount of merchant ship tonnage sunk by German U-boats during January was among the lowest monthly figures for the whole war, according to a joint Anglo-American statement issued last week by the Office of War Information.

ROUND-UP

Because of an increased demand for electric fence controllers, a substantially greater amount of these devices will be produced in the year ending June 30, 1944, than in any previous year, WPB said. . . . Manufacture of packing trunks, with iron and steel frames is permitted for civilian use, WPB announced. . . . This year civilians in the United States will get about 53 out of every 100 pounds of evaporated milk, 158 million pounds of dried skim milk, and 19 million pounds of dried whole milk, WPA announced. These quantities are less than the amounts received by civilians last year. . . . Broom production is seriously curtailed because of acute shortages of broomcorn and handles, WPB reports, and broom handle production may even continue to decline. . . . Total U. S. war casualties as reported by OWI February 9 were 150,478, including 34,179 dead, 51,292 wounded, 34,746 missing, 30,261 prisoners of war. . . . A shortage of large size tires may delay putting into use some of the newly completed farm tractors, according to the tractor industry advisory committee of WPB. . . . Hosiery dealers cannot force a customer who wants to buy fine gauge women's rayon hosiery to also buy a coarser or heavier gauge women's hosiery, OPA says.

R. P. Jarrett In Talk Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

Dean R. P. Jarrett talked Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon. "The importance of little things," was stressed.

Lessons from the life of Lincoln were drawn by the speaker as he read a short review of the life of the martyred President. The humor, common sense, sympathy, charity of Lincoln were emphasized. The speaker read Lincoln's Gettysburg speech as a symbol of the great life he lived.

"We are now at war. What do we think about in this period of stress," asked the speaker. In answer he read a poem written by a soldier in the Pacific, who recalled the little things of his home life, and his longing for a return to the little things which had so greatly influenced his life.

Dean Jarrett read another poem, written by one of his students, on the meaning of life. It was filled with the little things of life, which meant so much to the writer. His deduction was "Things really important are the simple things around which we weave our lives."

Visitors were: John E. Hill, Frank E. Hobgood, of Amarillo, Chaplain Howard B. Scholten, Capt. Paul L. Boutz, Lt. Manly Ballard, of the Student Training Detachment; Cpl. Robt. E. Barnard of Ft. Knox, Ky.
